

Keeping On Your Shoes and Socks

Sometimes I feel like taking off my shoes or socks in class.

Maybe my feet feel uncomfortable, or I just want to be free. But in the classroom, it's important to keep my shoes and socks on.

When I take off my shoes and socks, it can be distracting to my classmates. They might look at me instead of paying attention to the teacher. It can also make the class smell.

Keeping my shoes and socks on helps me stay safe. If there's something on the floor, like a pencil or a sharp object, my shoes protect my feet.

When I keep my shoes and socks on, I show respect for the classroom rules. It also helps me be ready for anything, like walking to a new part of the school or going outside.

I feel proud of myself when I follow the rule of keeping my shoes and socks on. It helps me stay focused on learning and having a great day at school.

I can practice keeping my shoes and socks on every day, and if I ever need help or feel uncomfortable, I know my teacher will understand and help me find a solution!
